

W A R N I N G -- Message #5 from Shebah Kasambu 'Ra --July 3, 2012.

See not the outer, see my Spirit I pray you see

As all my Mothers before me my fair-hair was Heaven's choice as child for me, and sun-kissed my skin in honor of my great Father be and they my Mothers in reflection you see.

Be my head or this outer- crust my soul be covered in regalia of Nubian-wigs you see blessed linen royal golden-thread silks or field cotton, it is yet one and the same, me, of spirit within that be

For neither wealth of man or poverty, or any coverings of head or body be shall ever define the inner me....
But that of my spirit of old carried within on this my sojourn here beneath the Heavens realm for Heaven's purpose to fulfill, .. oh we, the unwise let wisdom be, of this system of things, I am not and shall never be.

Am I, one asked,

thus recognized by leaders of man that rules the Earth, blessed be Heaven's decree for never shall I be for to fulfill that which I must, of this system of things, I am not

In Heaven's time all shall be revealed, of that what is and that what not, of that arisen and that to fall, as destiny's wine-cup is filled to brim all shall be fulfilled

What eyes will not see, open they shall be What ears will not hear, as servant hearkened to the master voice surely ears shall open be What hearts will not welcome receptive shall they be, yet denied, shall be their collective lot, for believed me they did not ...

Oh men and women of the cloth that not with righteous heart leads flock and grand of divine titles self-ordained what neither prophets or divine teachers claimed based on divine their title gained..
Apostle you are surely not, for true apostles care well the flock for Heaven placed them in their care And you that use our sacred names of kings and queens of sacred thrones and Gods and Goddess names you have claimed in heavens court and graves they wait for righteous and Just is their claim of names! for you all I have patience not, you rest assured take you this note Heaven sees denominations not And spirit nimmer rights forsake For that of them is in Heavens name nimmer shall they release their claim Nor God from whom it gained Nor blood of innocent that was claimed For generation said in God's great name For Heaven harms the Faithful not

But you have in Gods name!

Oh you not righteous of the cloth Oh you shall eat the greatest wrath For you go on your merry way while warn you not the flock in great harm's way as sheep to slaughter left in ignorance of the hour and the dangers that await, while trumpets long call no heed is paid the markets bell and dwindling collection box more interest for many made, as destiny's wine-cup appointed measure breaks becomes in overflow fulfilled I beg you change your lot.

Why warn you not And give comfort be Tell well the people of that which cometh be For soon they shall it greet You pray tell around blessed ones Where come it from let truth be seen That fear is not their treat

Why leave to suffer such deceit Conspiracies fears a torment be Yet all behind you let unseen And unexplained in mysteries You proclaim...
Yet God is fair and merciful So Heaven have long all explained Before that sacred mortals changed For domination power gains And innocent with blood they paid For generations was their fate Know Heaven harms the faithful not But that evil one in this old plot Yet on God's name such proclaimed I beg of you use wisdom well Before the final Judgment befell And set what right that which is not For innocent believe now not

The lie is now the truth they see And Heavens truth a question be I beg you change their lot, so less your cup of wrath

Why is protecting that what is not of present such import Greater than in this hour correcting that of greater worth, so trust be re-gained and comfort in spirit they be strengthen and guided for all ahead that wait them be?
To seal a lie Truth goes unseen and I become a Pagan Queen for your truth I accept not!

Are we alone
Or are we not?
Shall that foretold become or not is this the generation written off or claim you it is not?

Is it why my words by the collective is accepted not?..
Yet this I say, warn you the people now or condemn be your cups of Heavens wrath for blood of innocent you let spilt for naught your portion great for you knew and said not, or is it perhaps that you are truly not and mislead in conceit the innocent to such a terrible lot, as servant of an evil plot?
I beg you while yet time we got Change their lot

Fulfilled you have that long spoken plot that my words man believeth not...

They hear, but rather listen not .. but condemn in willing ignorance what they should not,
As distortions in truth pure Faith became Division made for earthly power, gain and fame

Yet hear me well for this I say there is one truth that forever stand there is but ONE ALMIGHTY GOD ONE Truth, ONE Faith ... ONE GREAT GOD of gods!
The ALL MIGHTY ALL POWERFUL GOD
In different languages each their name But we that what befall you shall For recognized they did not The Divine Shepherds you forgot the Great Queen and sacred godly lot the Pantheon was deemed inconsequent a lie became a truth, it is not and truth became a pagan thought while Shepherds ate the sheep were fed not in ignorance, you seal their lot from that what is, in preference of that what is not the wisdom of the Ancient Ones and Tribes of old that divine secrets hold you honored not.

The ancient lines a burden lot and poverty their destined lot scattered and divided as men plot the blessed South a target lot that history made, a burden became that know what lays behind hidden claim became as such a cursed lot the meek, the helpless all share one lot yet the greatest of poverty food is not but that of spirit Nourished by Heaven not.

Long sealed your lot, as wine-cup drips in over-brim at Heaven's wrath as that foretold in entrance walk.

As the Ocean Queen of mighty Seas prepare to show her powers in vengeance be and lands again to make her own, and in accord the Earth compete as its fiery bowels with fury accelerate and plates in panic separate while nations be kept in sleep and go their way oblivious of all that awaits, and outer crust slows in rotate and skies wondrous things let see yet the signs they ignore be.

As Heaven watches as they rehearse and galaxies open wide their doors like silken fabrics at dimensions folds end to end distance made naught as unearthly entrances wait in pend for three days shall they make their feast, and then the entrance of the beasts that shall their portion claim.

Oh eyes shall see that never seen and hearts shall skip as terror in seeps, as that beneath the earth awakes, and unrevealed its presence make confusion shall the earthlings greet as prophecies reality make as heavenly words becomes fulfilled, yet short destined so righteous see that heeded the words of Heaven be and followed well that recommend so victory shall they claim.

This Earth shall be their treasure be for the Great Light they followed be and nature's laws they honored be so victory of their God they see and happy that they trusted thee, no matter what to come shall be their Faith was sealed for glory be the sacred words and warnings be with Faith and trust they heeded be assured their God shall Victory see, and shy away they shall not be of that their eyes shall surely see and man shall walk with that of man not be in unity as Earth gains peace universe secrets reveal and eyes shall see that never seen since men of old yet walked the Earth but fear in no one eyes shall behold for Faith shall conquer fear you see and all that walk shall surely be as one and Peace shall be.

oh we the wise let wisdom be, for this system of things destiny now goes in fulfill Hear my voice you listen well, heed my words you heed them well say not these things was not to you said, for your very lips shall you condemn, but rather spread the words that you have read and heed them well for Heaven's fury shall be soon befell,

So if you wish to tell the tale, you heed all well and for your own sake Seek UNITY and Peace with all Heed the words, ignore it not In Unity of heart and minds Make Peace with Heaven and all on Earth And see you well all recommend You follow well the message bell And shelter see that you seek well Think not of you but others too For that shall weigh in God's eyes well So you can cross this darkness well For many shall the multitude be,
In ignorance that fall.

Oh Beloveds be true to Heaven for Heaven is to you...
And that promises Shall it keep....

Oh Child of Light Fear you not be
This must become So that you be free
So darkness shall no longer reign That Light shall be where all you see And Earth can then itself repair That all that lives
As One shall live
No creed or race
Shall have a bridge
And Unity in Hearts
Shall live
For on the Throne shall sit the Light And earth fulfill its purpose be A Glory in God's sight...

Pay heed my words, Heed well be.....

One In Light!
